

SEPTEMBER 17, 2019.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT and EVENTS

- Outline of current staffing and class sizes
- New staff this year includes new Hard of Hearing and Deaf Itinerant teacher, Psychologist, School Board Counsellor and Instructional Leadership Consultant (Special Education support), and Principal of Special Education for the Clarington region
- EQAO results – coming Sept. 25th as public release
- WHO ARE YOU? WE ARE STOWE: Seeing the child and being our authentic self: Sharing our gifts as part of our school culture
- “Initiative” for September, with “Responsibility” to follow in October as part of Character Matters initiative at KPR
- Wednesday September 25th is recognition of Ryan’s Day – focus on Concussion Awareness
- Open House Sept. 26th 5:30 – 7:00 p.m. (high school volunteers to help with pizza)
- P.A. Day Sept. 27th with a focus on Math
- Monday Sept. 30th is also KPR’s recognition of Orange Shirt day – supporting Indigenous Awareness
- Oct. 4th – Ukuleles for Kids presents to grade 4-8s
- Oct. 9th – My Life Online – digital citizenship for grades 4-8

STUDENT WELLNESS & SAFETY

- Fire Drill Friday, Sept. 13th - next two are surprises
- Lice Zapper here October 17th
- Health and Safety – excellent shape – Donna and team have everything “up to snuff”
- Big Brothers, Big Sisters to start providing a Big Sister for students, we hope to increase their involvement and current level of support
- Our Life Online will contribute to safety awareness for students
- Nov. 13th Body Image in the Digital Age with Robyne Hanley-Dafoe
- In talks with Victim Services for another Human Trafficking info night for parents – grant proposed and waiting on results of our submission – meeting with Abby Lee Sept. 27th regarding project

EXTRA-CURRICULAR & COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

- Soccer – Junior Sept. 23rd tournament; Intermediate Sept 25th – led by Amy Jackson (A.J.)
- Book Fair – Sept 24 – 30th (A.J.)
- Terry Fox Walk Sept. 26th – Toonies for Terry (L-H and Student Council)
- Cross Country Sept. 30th
- ETeam continues with Mrs. Skelding – Shoreline Clean up this Thursday
- Game Changers started up again with Brian Dallaway from the Health unit and L. Haley-Twiss (students running games for grades 1-4)
- Art Club initiated by grade students and supported by H.T and Harding starts next week (1-4)
- Library available to students during some lunch hours to read or catch up on work (A.J.)
- Outdoor Education continues this year – dates still being consolidated
- Many field trips being organized for the year
- Spirit Wear Sales starting next week and due Oct. 18th - blue and orange
- Sizes available at Open House Sept. 26
- New mascot, motto, vision and mission statement