

OCTOBER 22, 2019.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT and EVENTS

- EQAO results – Sept. 25th was public release – our goals
- Jeannette Spicer is our regional math coach and she is helping us to consolidate our work here
- WHO ARE YOU? WE ARE STOWE: Seeing the child and being our authentic self: Sharing our gifts as part of our school culture – safety online as focus this October
- Oct. 9th – My Life Online – digital citizenship for grades 4-8
- “Respect” as part of Character Matters initiative at KPR
- Oct. 4th – Ukuleles for Kids presents to grade 4-8s – coming Wed and Thurs for lessons at first nutrition break
- Individual Education Plans (IEPs) went home Oct. 15th to all parents
- Teachers working on Progress Reports that go home November 8th
- Hallowe’en parade Oct. 31 at 11:30 a.m.
- Jimmy Chapman coming Nov. 6th with Remembrance Day presentation for the whole school throughout the day (see pics)
- Grade 8 visit to high school in the afternoon of Nov. 6th
- Nov. 21st presentation by Lakefield Singers – Indigenous awareness
- Need parent volunteers to help lead front foyer refresh/décor

STUDENT WELLNESS & SAFETY

- Health and Safety site visit this month from board personnel – we are in excellent shape
- Lockdown last Thursday was successful
- Big Brothers, Big Sisters now more involved in the school – some mentors are setting up and we are developing a team for the Go Girls program to come in future (positive body image, etc.)
- Our Life Online is contributing to safety awareness for students – see posters near library
- Nov. presentation of Body Image in the Digital Age with Robyne Hanley-Dafoe (27th? – JH)
- In talks with Victim Services for another Human Trafficking info night for parents – grant proposed and waiting on results of our submission – met with Abby Lee Sept. 27th regarding project – looking for suggestions for another night regarding parent speaker

EXTRA-CURRICULAR & COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

- Book Fair – raised a great deal of funds for our library – thank you to volunteers
- Terry Fox Fundraiser raised over $2,000 and fun recognition for those who raised the most money (principal for half day – principal is student for half day; prizes)
- ETeam continues with Mrs. Skelding – currently doing a recycling and waste audit in the school – collecting data
- Game Changers is up and running again with Brian Dallaway from the Health unit and H.T. (students running games for grades 1-4)
- Art Club initiated by grade 2 and 3 students and supported by H.T and Harding now underway Wednesdays
- Library available to students during Mon, Wed, Fri lunch hours to read or catch up on work (A.J.)
- Junior and Intermediate Rugby with A. Jackson, D. Roberts and S. Harper this week
- Primary Choir with Harding
- Boo grams selling Oct. 28th to Oct. 30th 25c each or 5 for $1.00