

JANUARY 21, 2020.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT and EVENTS

- Character trait of Responsibility for December and Perseverance for December
- Holiday Concert was well received – thank you to Christine for offering to help students and Anne with the refreshments between concerts on Dec. 18th
- December was very busy with student council supporting the Toy Drive, Canned Food Drive, Fundraising for Bethesda House, Candy cane-grams, and door decorating
- CBC's Then National here Jan. 15th as part of their series about Human Trafficking
- Monday Jan. 27th, 15 student leaders will meet with CBC to discuss their perspectives on current issues affecting youth
- Grant of $15, 000 received from RBC – students will meet here after school Monday Jan. 27th to commence the project
- P.A. Day Jan. 31st
- Report cards go home February 19th – still have not heard what that will look like
- KPRDSB new Strategic Plan shared publicly – see handouts
- Ideas for new front foyer are developing

STUDENT WELLNESS & SAFETY

- Bell Let's Talk Day Jan. 29th being promoted with students – students fill out quote of how they are taking action to have a positive influence on school well-being, receive a ballot and have a chance to win one of fifteen toques from Bell Let's Talk
- Teachers provided with teacher's kit that includes lesson plans and activities to focus on positive mental health
- Continued monitoring of Kiss and Ride – discussion with Council Chair indicates some parents may have concerns but no parents have come to see me directly – my observations indicate a safe program with reminders required of some parents from time to time
- Trees have been limbed so students may be seen in the wooded area, allowing them a natural space to play
- Straight on 'til Morning will include messages of well-being on March 24th – theatre will come to us ($871. 63)
